

Charter of Commitment to Child Safety

Cire Services is committed to creating a child safe organisation where all children and young people are safe and feel safe.

Cire Services has a greater focus on safety for those children and young people who are considered more at risk to abuse and neglect.

Cire Services actively supports and facilitates participation and inclusion of Aboriginal children, children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds (CALD), those who are unable to live at home, children with a disability and/or children from sexuality and gender diverse groups (LGBTQIA+).

- We have a commitment to managing both physical and online environments to keep children and young people safe through governance, systems and processes. This statement provides the framework for the organisational approach to comply with best practice by aligning with Victorian Child Safe Standards in conjunction with the guiding National Principles for Child Safety
- We have a zero tolerance to abuse, racism, and bullying
- We have an explicit commitment to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children
